Quality Portable Buildings Limited (“QPB”)

Terms and Conditions of Sale

Customer: Name

An agreement between QPB and the above customer (“the customer”). Whereby it is agreed that QPB will erect a building in accordance with the attached quotation and conditions below. The customer authorises the above work to be performed and agrees to all the conditions below.

1. General

This contact constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and takes precedence over all other communications between the parties be they oral or written. No servant or agent of QPB is deemed to have any authority to make any representations or agreements contrary to these terms.

2. Quotation

The attached quotation remains available for acceptance for 14 days from the date hereof. Acceptance must be made in writing in the place provided on this form of quotation and returned to QPB within the 14 days stipulated.

3. Price

The price quoted is based on material, labour and goods and services tax rate, current at the time of quotation.

4. Payment

The customer agrees to pay 15% deposit at the signing of this contract and pay the remaining total contract price on completion of the building and prior to delivery.

5. Roof Trusses

The customer shall not store items in the roof space or a fix ceiling linings to the trusses, unless the roof has been specially designed by QPB for these loads.

6. Standard and Colours

Unless otherwise specified, the building will be erected to the designs, specifications and colours of QPB’s standard range. The customer is assumed to have viewed QPB's display information, and agrees to accept these designs, specifications and colours.

7. Site

Unless otherwise specified, the quotation allows for a standard building to be delivered onto a clear level firm and accessible site. It does not allow for any items such as site preparation, drainage, electrical, ramps, filling of unstable sites, or any conditions imposed by the council or any other local authorities.

8. Delivery and Completion

The delivery date and completion date, if stated, is an estimate only. QPB accepts no liabilities for any delays due to strikes, weather, material shortages or any other cause.

9. Cancellations

Should the customer cancel this contract, then their deposit will be refunded less a management fee, and all reasonable costs incurred by QPB.
